Join the campaign to bring cancer services to Kendal

We, the undersigned, call upon the NHS to bring a new cancer treatment centre to Westmorland General Hospital in Kendal providing radiotherpy, chemotherepy and full clinical support. The lack of a local centre means that an unacceptably low proportion of people from south Cumbria survive cancer. It also means a stressful, arduous and often painful 100-mile roundtrip for patients from south Cumbria to recieve treatment. A Cancer Treatment centre in Kendal would save lives and improve the experience of treatment for cancer patients in south Cumbria.

When complete, please return (as soon as possible) to:
